NHMA 12th National Rally 2009

The National Historical Machinery Association (NHMA) voted to hold the 12th National Rally at Sturt Reserve, Murray Bridge, South Australia on the 3rd to the 5th of April 2009.

As celebration of Australia's heritage and pioneering spirit, the event provides exhibitors and visitors with the rare opportunity to take a walk down memory lane thus viewing an extraordinary collection of items from the past.

The Adelaide Hills Motor Restorers Club, Fleurieu Antique Rural Machinery Society, Gawler Machinery Restorers Club, Gawler Tractor and Engine Association and the Lower Murray Vintage Engine & Machinery Club have joined forces to host this prestigious biennial event.

The rally will host exhibits of stationary engines, machinery, tractor pull, tractor displays, vintage, veteran and classic cars, paddle steamers and boats, steam and traction engines, many trade, art and craft, general interest stalls from both the present and yesteryear.

Based on past National Rallies, this event will attract a large number of exhibitors and many thousands of visitors to Murray Bridge travelling from all over Australia including strong contingents from New Zealand, USA and England.
