Laws of Cricket

Recently there was a question of how to score a batsmen if they didn't complete an innings
<http://www.lords.org/cricket/laws.asp>

Law 2: Substitutes/runners, leaving field, retiring, commencing innings

9. Batsman leaving the field or retiring

A batsman may retire at any time during his innings. The umpires, before allowing play to proceed, shall be informed of the reason for a batsman retiring.

(a) If a batsman retires because of illness, injury or any other unavoidable cause, he is entitled to resume his innings subject to (c) below. If for any reason he does not do so, his innings is to be recorded as 'Retired – not out'.

(b) If a batsman retires for any reason other than as in (a) above, he may only resume his innings with the consent of the opposing captain. If for any reason he does not resume his innings it is to be recorded as 'Retired – out'.

(c) If after retiring a batsman resumes his innings, it shall be only at the fall of a wicket or the retirement of another batsman.

The competition news is a weekly sheet sent to club contacts, they have the responsibility of getting this info to the rest of the club. It is designed to help in the smooth running of the competition throughout the year and will contain premiership tables and other useful info

As always any views expressed in this newsletter are not necessarily the views held by the SAWCA Board, this is a quick newsletter put out each week to keep the competition running smoothly
