

MEMBERSHIP FORM

The Friends of Onkaparinga Park are a community based group of volunteers. They help the Department for Environment and Heritage to protect the natural features of The Onkaparinga River National Park and The Onkaparinga River Recreation Park. Activities include tree planting, seed collection, rubbish removal, weed control, walking trail construction and fundraising.

If you would like to help the Friends group, please fill out the form below and send it, along with your membership fee, to the address shown.

For further information phone the President, Colin Malcolm, on 08 8382 2194
