

Parndana Soldier Settlement Museum – website and social media (photo and video repository, may involve converting video to web accessible format and host)

Parndana Soldier Settlement Museum is a small museum open to tourists which only has items and information about the establishment of the township of Parndana (Kangaroo Island) as part of the Soldier Settlement scheme after WW2.

We would like a web presence to publicise the museum, attract more volunteers and retain information for future in accessible form. We would like suggestions for how to bring our museum into the present age. We have up to 12 hours of video footage interviews taken in last 12 months of settlers but are unsure how to utilise. Most settlers gone or are over 90 years so imperative to collect their stories as fast as possible.

Expressions of interest in working on these projects should be sent to your lecturer/tutor for the course in which you are doing the project (eg. Comm 3063) and Alice Dodd: alice.dodd@unisa.edu.au. Further contact details for the organisation will then be available.

Any enquiries about the project or organisation should be sent to Alice Dodd: alice.dodd@unisa.edu.au
