

FIBROMYALGIA SYNDROME Symptoms and Signs Checklist symptoms vary in type & intensity. Canadian Guidelines 2007

Musculoskeletal System	 reactive depression 	Ш generalized stiffness 	Visual and Auditory Disturbances muscle cramps-e.g., legs 	 visual changes or eye pain chest pressure and pain 	double, blurred or wavy vision • TMJ	 dry or itchy eyes Nervous System	photophobia persistent fatigue	 tinnitus-buzzing or ringing in ears lack of endurance	 hyperacusis & interference from 	Ш migraines or new onset headaches 	background noise Sensory	Sleep Disturbances hypersensitivity to pain 	sleep disorders-hyper or insomnia
• hyper-responsiveness to noxious stimuli	 non-refreshing sleep perceptual and dimensional distortions feeling of burning or swelling 	Circulatory System sensory overload phenomena 	 neurally mediated hypotension loss of cognitive map 	 fainting or vertigo dyspnoea 	 palpitations and tachycardia Cognitive	fluid retention difficulties processing information	bruising slowness in cognitive processing	Digestive System concentration problems	lump in throat difficulties with word retrieval	• nausea confusion and word mix-ups	heartburn short-term memory difficulties	abdominal pain Motor and Balance	irritable bowel syndrome muscle weakness and paralysis 	ŕ poor balance, ataxia and tandem gait 	Urinary System	_ clumsiness and tendency to drop things	 irritable bladder difficulty in tandem gait	overactive bladder atypical numbness or tingling	Reproductive System Neuroendocrine System	 dysmenorrhea marked weight change 	PMS or irregular menstrual cycles heat/cold intolerance	loss of sexual libido or impotence neuropsychological 	anorgasmia mood swings, anxiety 	ŭ	_ education • best practice • management • empowerment

education • best practice • management • empowerment